> JOIN US

The United Nations Association of Australia is a non-profit, non-government organisation, which works to advance the goals of the United Nations in Australia and around the world.

Established in 1946, the UNAA engages Australians in the important work of the UN, through education projects, speaker events, advocacy campaigns and model UN competitions.

UNAA members come from all areas and walks of life — age, education levels and employment histories aren't important. What brings them together is a shared interest in the work of the United Nations and in trying to make the world a better place.

> OUR WORK

Given the enormity and complexity of issues without borders that affect us all, such as climate change, food security and nuclear disarmament, the work of the UN has never been more important.

In addition to regular awareness-raising events, the UNAA runs national campaigns to advance the goals of the UN and raise money for particular UN agencies.

The UNAA plays a key advocacy role, lobbying the Australian government to support the work of the UN and participate in multilateral forums, through initiatives such as the UN Parliamentary Group, UN Academic Network and the publication Australia and the UN.

As well as UNAA Branches, there are UN Youth Branches around the country as well as the UNAA National Young Professionals Network.

> WHAT YOU CAN EXPECT AS A MEMBER

Members can sign up annually or for three years at a time.

UNAA Branches run events for members throughout the year, such as conferences, dinners, film nights and speaker events. These are a great way to connect with high-profile UN officials, diplomats, politicians and academics.

UNAA Branches hold regular meetings for members, which provide an opportunity to be updated about news from the UN and what the UNAA is doing around Australia. Meetings are also used to organise upcoming community events.

Whether you come to a meeting once a month or attend an event once a year, your level of participation is entirely up to you.

UNAA members receive:

- The latest edition of UNity – the UNAA's regular newsletter containing all the latest UN and UNAA news
- Discounted entry into UNAA events across Australia
- The opportunity to participate in the UNAA National Conference and National Council Meetings
- The right to nominate for office and vote at your local UNAA Branch AGM.
