OPPORTUNITIES AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

ACFID University Linkage Network

The Australian Council for International Development (ACFID) is inviting academics and development practitioners to join the ACFID-University Linkage network. The network is co-chaired by the Institute for Human Security (IHS) at La Trobe University and ACFID with the primary objectives to widen debate on international development and aid effectiveness; and to strengthen collaboration between academics working in this field and members of ACFID. The network is guided by a Steering Group bringing academics from a range of disciplines together with development practitioners and policy makers in addition to secretariat support from ACFID. The Network has a monthly newsletter with updates including network news, opportunities, upcoming events and interesting reads. For more information about how to get involved with the network and to sign up to the network newsletter please contact ACFID Research Coordinator Meghan Cooper at mcooper@acfid.asn.au
