

REES BARRETT

Currently the School Programs Coordinator for UNAANA, Rees has 45 years' experience in education including secondary teaching in the Humanities and Social Sciences area (geography, history and citizenship), educational administration, curriculum, assessment and school review. Curriculum experience includes the Kindergarten to Year 10 Social Studies syllabus (1980s), National curriculum for Australia (1990s) and VET in Schools. Rees has published textbooks in Australian geography and a primary library series Significant People in Australia's History (2009).

Since retiring from full-time work in education, Rees had led the development of the UNAA Global Citizenship Schools and related programs. The 2016 UNAANA Student Leaders' Parliamentary Conference was the most rewarding moment of his career so far. He believes in the butterfly effect.

AVAILABILITY

Rees is available at most times of the school week (subject to confirmation)

TOPICS

Formation of the UN and its varied roles, UN Observances, Sustainable Development Goals, UN and climate change.